

AL LAWSON IN TOWN

President of Union League Talks of Plans.

LANGRAF LOCAL MAGNATE

New York Man Has Washington Franchise and Is Now Making an Effort to Obtain Suitable Site for Park for Outlaw Club in Washington—Many Clubs Wish to Join.

A. W. Lawson, president of the new Union Baseball League, was in Washington yesterday and gave out the first definite information concerning the plans of the outlaw organization to place a club in this city.

"When we held our first meeting in Philadelphia last month," said Lawson, "we drew up a tentative circuit, which practically every city of any importance in the East has sent applications for franchises, and as we must give all of these applications consideration, we can do nothing definite in regard to our circuit until the local question is settled."

"One of the most attractive offers we have received has come from Richmond. I visited that city early in the week and found the Richmond people most enthusiastic about the league. They have the money and are ready to start active work as soon as we say the word."

"At the first meeting one of the franchises was awarded to E. C. Langraf, of New York, and he has selected Washington as the city in which he will place a club. Mr. Langraf is one of the most active men we have, and he is already in communication with Washington people in an effort to obtain the most suitable site for a park."

Langraf is planning. "No Washington manager has yet been appointed, but I expect to meet Mr. Langraf within the next couple of weeks, and then some final information will be given out in regard to the club which we expect to place here."

"In baseball particularly it is impossible to talk until everything is so far advanced as to make failure impossible. We have our plans. They have been well worked out, and they are good ones. But we cannot act at this time, give them out, unless we wish to stand the risk of their defeat by our opponents. And we don't care to take that risk. That's the reason I can't say anything more definite at present."

"We do not expect to have trouble with any of the older organizations. We simply ask to be let alone, and to let live. We will wait until the Eastern League schedule is announced, and then, if it is not absolutely impossible, we will make our schedule fit in so that there will be no conflict in any city. We realize that the club that gives the best ball will get the favor of the people, and we expect to have that best club, but even at that we will patronize the other league when we are not at home."

COMPANY G QUINT LOSES.

Athletic Association Team Continues Its Winning Streak.

The Athletic Association Quin, leaders of the City League, added another victory to its string by trimming Company G by 41 to 22 in the Center Market gymnasium in the basketball game last night.

Ellis and Rantz starred for the winners, while Duncan led his team mates in field goals with 8 to his credit. Line-up: A. A. Potlins, C. G. Lewis, left forward; Duncan Ellis, right forward; Demas Bell, center; Herbert Odgers, left back; Odgers, Collinsworth, right back; Duncan Gault-Elliott, left half; Collinsworth, right half; Duncan Gault-Elliott, left half; Collinsworth, right half; Duncan Gault-Elliott, left half; Collinsworth, right half.

Blackburn Wanted $500.

Used to Fight Charlie Hitt Without Guarantee.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 8.—The fight between Charlie Hitt, of this city, and Jack Blackburn, of Philadelphia, scheduled for last night, was called off at a eleventh hour because Blackburn refused to go on unless he was given guarantee of $500, win or lose.

He telegraphed to his manager, Jake Carey, of Schenectady, that unless he could get the guarantee he would not go on. Hitt's manager, William Parr, refused to guarantee $500 to Blackburn if he lost, and even told him that if he won, and all the gate receipts, the police were on hand to stop the fight, but there was no occasion for their services.

LAST TRIBUTE TO OARSMAN.

Magnificent Public Funeral Accorded Hanlan at Toronto.

Toronto, Ontario, Jan. 8.—Edward Hanlan, former champion oarsman of the world, was buried yesterday afternoon, the city according him a public funeral. In the morning the remains lay in state in St. Andrew's Church. On the brow of the dead champion was a laurel wreath, placed there by his two sons, and backed about the platform were many floral tributes, among them being a magnificent wreath from the city. From 11:15 until 1:30 thousands thronged the church for a last glance at the dead athlete.

The route of the procession to the Necropolis was lined by thousands of citizens, and many hundreds followed the hearse in carriages. There was an immense crowd at the cemetery, where the last simple services were performed.

Moss Lynchburg's Captain.

Lynchburg, Jan. 8.—Manager Jack Grim, of the Lynchburg baseball club, has signed Charlie Moss, of the Portsmouth team last season, to captain the Hill Climbers this year. With his players Moss was one of the most popular player-managers in the league, and was universally liked around the circuit. Off the field Moss is quiet and unobtrusive. On the diamond he is thoroughly aggressive, and fights for every point of the game as though his life depended on it. With two such wise heads as Jack Grim and Charlie Moss at the helm of the Hill Climbers, there will be "something doing" with any club that tackles Lynchburg next season.

Recommend Herney Gallagher.

Charley Hickman has recommended Herney Gallagher, of this city, to Bill Bernhard, manager of the Nashville club, as the best pitcher in Washington. It is likely that the Aloysius club twirler will receive an offer to join the Southern League team.

SHIFT IN CUBS' PLANS.

Chicago Club Decides to Prolong Stay at West Baden.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Upon receipt of a letter from Manager Chance of the world beaters yesterday President Murphy announced a little shift in the training plans of the Cubs. The manager favors spending ten days at West Baden instead of only a week, and the team will start from here March 3 for the Southern Indiana resort, and leave there March 13 for Vicksburg, Miss. Ten days will be spent at Vicksburg, the opening game of the trip being scheduled for Sunday, March 15, the day the team arrives there. The complete list of other engagements is as follows:

Jackson, Miss., March 25. Montgomery, Ala., March 28 and 29. Atlanta, Ga., March 30 and 31. Chattanooga, Tenn., March 31 (with Toledo). Birmingham, Ala., April 1, 2 and 3. Nashville, Tenn., April 4 and 5. Evansville, Ind., April 6. Terre Haute, Ind., April 7. Fort Wayne, Ind., April 10. Indianapolis, Ind., April 11. Dayton, Ohio, April 12 and 13.

The champs will stay at Dayton until the day before the league season opens. Although no work has been done on the schedule yet, it is expected that the Cubs will open their campaign at Cincinnati April 16.

A lot of bad news was contained in Chance's letter. The manager has been sort of down and out for several days with a lame foot, and it is feared a small bone is broken. The injured pedal will be put under the X-ray immediately, so that whatever the trouble proves to be it may be cured before the baseball season begins.

The Cub leader was in rather poor condition much of last year, and in the hope of beginning the 1908 season in the best possible trim he will put in two weeks of preparatory training at Hot Springs before he comes to Chicago to take the team to West Baden.

GEORGE DIXON'S FUNERAL.

Services Held Over Remains of Former Champion Pugilist.

New York, Jan. 8.—Funeral services over the remains of George Dixon, former feather-weight champion pugilist of the world, who died in Bellevue Hospital on Monday, were held this morning, after which the body was sent to Boston on the 1 o'clock train in the care of an undertaker sent here by Dixon's wife.

The funeral in Boston will be held at the Church Street African Methodist Episcopal Church at 2 o'clock to-morrow, after which the dead body will be buried in Mount Hope Cemetery. Joe Gans has contributed $100 toward a monument to be placed over Dixon's grave, while other sporting men of prominence say they will help.

WESTERN COLLEGES COMBINE

Chicago, Wisconsin, and Minnesota Decide to Meet on Gridiron.

Michigan Will Be Admitted by Triumvirate of Wolverines—Will Agree to Regulations.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Championship football will come back to its old place next fall. Plans of the "big three," announced yesterday by Coach A. A. Stagg, of the University of Chicago, contemplate a resumption of the former days of "real" championship schedules, with Chicago, Wisconsin, and Minnesota battling for the title in round-robin fashion.

Coach Stagg, of the Maroons, Dr. Harry Williams, of Minnesota, and Dr. C. F. Hutchins, of Wisconsin, the conference triumvirate, have arranged tentative dates which will insure games with each other next season, although the contracts have not yet been signed. Michigan will be included in the compact in case it returns to the "big nine" by February 1, but the preliminary plans scarcely anticipate the participation of the Wolverines.

The new arrangement means that the Maroons are sure of two "big" conference contests, even though Michigan drops out. Minnesota expects to take on Wisconsin in addition to the Maroons, and Wisconsin will have its hands full with both the Gophers and the Maroons.

If Michigan fails to come around to the conference viewpoint within the month, the school will no longer figure in the Western championship, and will not be able to get a chance at the title through the impossibility of getting representative Western games, the professors believe.

Coach Stagg has not decided further on the make-up of his schedule. Indiana and Illinois are both likely to get games, and if Michigan drops out, there is a possibility that an Eastern game may be scheduled. If one of the Eastern schools is taken on, Chicago will have the heaviest schedule in years.

The "big three" plan has been considered favorably by all of the schools, and there is no doubt that it will be taken up if Michigan stays out of the conference," said Coach Stagg. "Dr. Hutchins and Dr. Williams are both in favor of the plan, and I believe it will result most satisfactorily for football in the West."

AMERICAN COMMITTEE CHOSEN

Will Aid Contestants in New York-Paris Auto Test.

New York, Jan. 8.—The American Automobile Association, at its regular executive committee meeting yesterday, voted to assist the contestants in the New York to Paris run. The meeting was held at the office of the association, President William H. Hotchkiss came down from Buffalo to preside.

The prospects of the contest were discussed with keen interest, and the members appointed as their representatives on the honorary American committee, Jefferson de Mont Thompson, chairman of the racing board; Frank B. Hower, of Buffalo, chairman of the touring board; and Secretary Frederick H. Elliott. These members will be at once added to the committee, those who have previously been selected and who have consented to serve being Mayor McClellan, Dave Hennen Morris, Peter Cooper Hewitt, Robert Lee Morrill, Col. John Jacob Astor, Cortlandt Field Bishop, and Baron Rosen, the Russian Ambassador.

Haggitt Quits Breeding Trotters.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 8.—J. B. Haggitt has decided to abandon the breeding of trotters, and has assigned the Stallion Knight, all mares and youngsters to the Kentucky Sales Company auction February 10-15, and after that date running horses will be bred at Elkhorn Park.

Gans Sends $100 to Dixon Fund.

Baltimore, Jan. 8.—Joe Gans yesterday sent a check for $100 to a New York newspaper to go toward a fund to build a monument to George Dixon, the famous ex-feather-weight champion, who died in New York.

HOME-RUN JOHNSON

Pitching Phenom Develops Into Wicked Slugger.

PLAYS BALL IN CALIFORNIA

Washington Twirler Says He Has Received Tempting Offers from Outlaw Clubs, but Has Refused as He Wants to Continue to Play Here—Strikes Out 28 Batsmen.

Walter Johnson, the willing working Weiser Wizard, will not only be with the Nationals next season, but if his pitching in California this winter can be taken as a criterion, he will even surpass his remarkable performances of last year.

In a letter to a friend, an attaché of the Senate, in this city, Johnson writes from his home in Fullerton, Cal., that he has had several offers to join outlaw clubs, but that he has declined them all and has confined his ball playing to Sunday games with the team representing his home.

Johnson writes: "I have played ball nearly every Sunday since I came home, and my arm is in fine shape. I never let it out too much, but just toss the ball over. You ought to see me bat. I hit better than any man in the league, and there are some good hitters and pitchers out here. I don't pull away like I used to back there. I hit two over the fence for two home runs thus far."

Likes to Play Here.

"I never thought of playing outlaw ball here. There is good money in it, but I intend to stick to Washington as long as I can."

Johnson inclosed the following clipping from a California paper:

"Johnson pitched a great game, striking out eighteen, Johnson was also strong at the bat. He got two hits, one a first runner. He also scored Santa Ana's first run. Means caught a great game behind the bat, freezing everything that Johnson put over the plate. In the eighth game played, Santa Ana has scored 37 runs to their opponents' 14. And in the seven games pitched Johnson has struck out ninety-eight of the opposing batters. He has made thirteen hits out of twenty-five times at bat, which gives him a batting average of .520."

While the schedules must first receive the indorsement of the two big leagues, it is understood that, as far as the National League is concerned, the New York team will play in Philadelphia on April 14, while the Boston team will be in Brooklyn on that day.

In the West, the Chicago Cubs will open in Cincinnati, with St. Louis at Pittsburgh. The New York Americans will cut the season loose here on April 14, while the Boston team will be in Brooklyn on that day.

Willie Fitzgerald Mixes It with Unk Russell.

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—Unk Russell and Willie Fitzgerald, the feudists of Fish-town, fought a seething one-round bout at catch weights and Kerry Gow rules, early this morning, in a poolroom on Walnut street, between Eighth and Ninth. There had long been bad blood between the men, and it culminated when they met in the ring.

The desperate fighting harp could restrain himself no longer, so he advanced and sent a straight left to Unk's nose. They then stood toe to toe, and about two minutes of the hardest milling ever seen here took place.

The men became winded, which gave friends an opportunity to pry them apart. Willie confessed that he was a little lousy.

COLUMBIA WANTS RACE.

Harvard's Annapolis Match Leaves New Yorkers Without Contest.

New York, Jan. 8.—The arrangement of a boat race between Harvard and the Naval Academy at Annapolis for April 22 on the Severn marks the passing of the last chance for another race between Harvard and Columbia for this spring. It has been expected at the Morningstar Institution that the race which Columbia won on the Charles last year would be rowed again in this year's schedule, but the proposal to that effect did not meet with favorable consideration at Cambridge. As long as the Annapolis Harvard race hung fire, however, there was still a chance of Columbia's getting a match with the Crimson, but now that the middies will race Harvard there is no chance for Columbia. This announcement was made from Cambridge yesterday, and was confirmed by Columbia's rowing management.

There is in consequence much uncertainty as to what Columbia will do in preliminary racing. There is no race now arranged but the contest in the Harlem regatta, and this is not considered sufficient racing prior to going to Poughkeepsie. There is no possibility of a race with Annapolis either unless Annapolis does not intend rowing at Poughkeepsie. The definite statement was made last night that Columbia would make no engagement with any crew for preliminary races if that crew should appear at Poughkeepsie, as it is considered that preliminary races of this character detract from the interest in the general intercollegiate regatta later.

LICENSES GRANTED CLUBS.

Others Are Held Up by the Washington Excise Board.

Announcement was made by the excise board at the District building yesterday that of the eighteen clubs of the city which had applied for a license to sell liquor eight had been granted and ten were held up.

The denials were made, according to statements, because of the fact that the initiation fee required by several of the clubs was far too small, and the Sunday liquor law is abused by many of them.

The licenses held up are: Bartenders' Club, Brightwood Driving Club, Chamberlain Club, Home Club, Jolly Pat Men's Club, Sparta Club, South Washington Business Men's Club, Villa Flora Club, Washington Jockey Club, and Wine View Pleasure Club.

Licenses were issued to the following clubs: Army and Navy Club, Century Club, Eagle Club, Garrick Club, Metropolitan Club, University Club, Cosmos Club, Washington Sausageband.

HARVARD'S PROSPECTS BRIGHT.

Squad of 156 Men Report as Candidates for Track Team.

Cambridge, Jan. 8.—Candidates for the Harvard track team turned out in large numbers, 156 men reporting in answer to Capt. Dodge's call, an increase of 22 over last year. They packed the assembly room of the Harvard Union, and listened to speeches by Coaches Garcelon, Quinn, and Lathrop, ex-Capt. Minot, of last year's team, and M. H. Stone, a former Harvard distance runner.

In his speech, Minot announced that he had presented three cups to be competed for by candidates for the jumps, the weights and the hurdles, under somewhat unusual circumstances. The cups will go to the man in each of these three divisions of track work who has reported most consistently for practice during the season, and who has shown the greatest improvement in his work. The object of the cups is to stimulate, as large a number of men as possible to report regularly for practice.

Harvard's prospects this spring in track events are excellent, as she has back men who won 34 out of 42 her total in the dual meets with Yale last year, as against men who won 27½ total last year who will again be available at Yale.

APRIL 14 TOO EARLY

American League Moguls in Favor of Later Opening.

PREFER A SHORTER SCHEDULE

National League Said to Approve Report of Schedule Committee to Open Season April 14 and Play 154 Games, but American League May Hold Out for Later Date.

New York, Jan. 8.—The decision reported by the schedule committees of the American and National leagues to open the championship season on April 14, and to play a series of 154 games, is not in accordance with the policy of Ban Johnson and his American League colleagues.

Johnson and Company have all along argued that the season should not open before April 20 at the earliest, and that a schedule of 140 games is plenty long enough. But the National League moguls have never regarded such a plan with favor, and as they have stuck together in the conference with the American Leaguers, just concluded at Cincinnati, another early opening with possibly winter weather to contend with is on the cards.

While the schedules must first receive the indorsement of the two big leagues, it is understood that, as far as the National League is concerned, the New York team will play in Philadelphia on April 14, while the Boston team will be in Brooklyn on that day.

In the West, the Chicago Cubs will open in Cincinnati, with St. Louis at Pittsburgh. The New York Americans will cut the season loose here on April 14, while the Boston team will be in Brooklyn on that day.
